GREAT SHELFORD,
CAMBRIDGE.

Jan. 15. 11

My dear Sir,

As I have had no reply to the answer which I wrote to your letter, I am wondering whether a somewhat different proposal may facilitate the arrangements for the translation of my book, the first edition of which is nearly exhausted now.

I am willing that six pounds shall be payable after the sale of 500 copies, the other four pounds to be paid before publication.

Yours faithfully
C. S. Myers.

