Dear Sir,

I am writing at this early date to inform you that the Hospitality Committee, under the Hon. Secretaryship of Mrs. Alec Tweedie, have arranged for a banquet of welcome to be given at the Hotel Cecil on July 24th, the opening day of the Congress at 8 p.m. Formal invitations will be issued about six weeks or two months before that date, but as we are most anxious to secure the attendance of all those who are taking an official part in the Congress, I am writing to ask if you would now book the date, and let me know if you will endeavour to be present.

Yours very truly,

Hon. Secretary.
